Subject: New Hire Payroll Forms

When you hire a new employee, it is important to complete all required payroll forms. These forms include the Indiana New Hire Reporting Form, W-4, WH-4, W-11, and the I-9 form.

Indiana New Hire Reporting Form

New hire reporting was created in 1996 to improve the child support income withholding process. All employers are required to report new hires, rehires, re-called employees, and temporary employees within 20 days of hire to the Department of Workforce Development. Indiana offers various electronic and non-electronic submission options. A PDF form for submitting the required information is available on our website or AccuPay can complete the reporting requirements for you.

W-4 Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate

The W-4 form is used to determine the correct amount of federal withholding to deduct from the employee's payroll. This form should be completed by the employee when they are hired and anytime their financial situation changes. The 2009/2010 tax law changes by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act resulted in new federal tax withholding tables. Each employee should review their federal withholding and determine if additional withholding is necessary. The W-4 form provides an option to have an additional flat dollar amount withheld from each payroll in order to meet an employee's tax objectives. Also, a very handy "IRS withholding calculator" is available online at www.accupay.com/forms-downloads to assist employees in claiming the correct number of allowances on their W-4 form.

WH-4 Employee's Indiana Withholding Exemption and County Status Certificate

The WH-4 form is used to determine the correct amount of Indiana state and county tax to withhold from the employee's payroll. This form should be completed by the employee when they are hired and when the number of exemptions they are entitled to claim changes. This form also provides the option to have an additional flat dollar amount of state tax withheld from each payroll. It is very important that the employee complete his/her counties of residence and primary place of employment for January 1 of every year since those counties control the employee's county tax rates for the entire year.

I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification

The I-9 form is used to verify an individual is eligible to work in the United States. The form should be completed no later than the time of hire for both citizens and noncitizens. An employer must sign/date Form I-9 affirming they have examined original documents which authorize a person to work in the US. The completed form should be kept on file by the employer and it is subject to inspection by authorized government officials. A Spanish version of the I-9 form is also available, but the form must be completed in English to meet necessary requirements.

W-11 HIRE ACT Affidavit

This form should be completed and signed by newly hired employees who have not worked for more than 40 hours during the 60 days before you hire them. Form W-11, or AccuPay's "HIRE Act Employee Affidavit", provides employers with an exemption from the employer "FICA tax match" through the end of 2010.

Direct Deposit – Employee Agreement

Every employee who wants AccuPay to direct deposit their payroll check should complete this form and fax it back to AccuPay at 317-885-7591, along with copies of the employee's voided checks so we can obtain bank account information.
